

CERTIFIED TREE RISK ASSESSORS AS OF DECEMBER 2009

Program Overview

The Tree Risk Assessment Course & Exam was first launched in British Columbia by the Pacific Northwest Chapter of the International Society of Arboriculture (PNW-ISA) in July 2005. The course was developed in consultation with the Workers' Compensation Board of British Columbia (WCB), BC Hydro, Wildlife and Danger Tree Committee of British Columbia, and numerous reviewers around North America.

Prompted by a tree-related fatality in 2000, WCB and PNW-ISA began exploring ways to design and implement a training course for the assessment of trees in urban and urban/rural interface areas. These discussions resulted in a project, funded by WCB, PNW-ISA, and BC Hydro, to develop training and accreditation in tree risk assessment.

In the summer of 2004, WorkSafe BC recognized the course and credential as an accepted industry standard in British Columbia. After the successful course launch in British Columbia, the course was expanded to include other PNW-ISA regions in September 2006.

The following list includes those who have successfully completed the Tree Risk Assessment Course & Exam. Additional program information is included after the listing.
